

PENTECOST

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. Acts 2: 1-4

A conflagration -

Not the accidental kind eviscerating a cathedral -

But a Deity-deliberate combustion,

Ignited by a mighty hand -

reducing fear to ash

kindling fervor

gathering and forging the faithful.

The Spirit of God lit lamps meant for dark lands

that there may be witnesses in the wind

and passion leading the way

mirroring the Light - speaking and living the Word.

This Pentecost moment –

may it incite love in Kairos time

may it consume the demons of the night

may it bring peace to all this precious and shattered world.

*Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth.*

Written by Jo Lynn Ryan Krempecki